Conference Information

Who Should Attend

Non-profit organizations, faith-based organizations, community-based organizations, emergency management, and other agencies that may assist in disaster response.

Accommodations

The conference is held at Camp Ida-Haven in McCall, ID. The camp is run by the Seventh Day Adventist Church. Guests must provide their own towels, toiletries, and bedding. Separate men's and women's groups are in cabins and lodges. We will accommodate married couples where possible.

Meals will be in the camp cafeteria. Meat, fish, and poultry are not served. Dairy products and eggs are used. If you have special dietary needs, please let us know two weeks in advance and we will try to accommodate you. Your help with dishes and vacuuming of rooms before departure will be expected.

Visit the Camp Ida-Haven website for more information: www.idahaven.org/index.php?page=lodging. The camp is about 5 miles from McCall, around Payette Lake.

Scholarships

There are a limited number of scholarships for the cost of the registration for IDAVOAD members and partners. The IDAVOAD will provide 1 scholarship for each state participating. The scholarships will cover registration but additional assistance will be considered on a case by case basis.

If you are unable to attend due to financial reasons, please email mmarsh@imd.idaho.gov by September 1, 2017.
